

FROM (DEPT/ DIVISION): County Counsel

SUBJECT: Coordinated COVID Response

Background: On August 11, 2021, the Board of Commissioners reestablished the declaration of emergency in Umatilla County due to the COVID pandemic. On August 12, 2021, the Morrow County Board of Commissioners declared a local state of emergency in Morrow County. Due to overlapping work force and economies, similar rise in cases, and sharing of medical services, it would be desirous for the two counties to coordinate their responses to the COVID emergency.	Requested Action: To the extent allowed by law, Umatilla County will coordinate with Morrow County in both counties responses to the current emergency in both counties due to the COVID pandemic, including policies and resources.
