to the following conclusions

First: That the opening of Road No 425 would accommodate more persons than any other road in the county

Second: That it would beneficially affect more heavy tax payers than any other road.

Third: That if opened said road would very materially shorten the distance to be traveled by all person living east of Pendleton in reaching the county seat.

Fourth: That the opening of the said road is of sufficient importance to give the Court authority to pay said damages out of the road fund received from the rate

It is therefore considered and ordered that the Clerk of this Court draw county warrants payable in coin out of the road fund for the following amounts in full settlement of all claims for damages.

J. F Adams	$32 <sup>50</sup>
J. A Alloway	50 <sup>00</sup>
John Ferguson	52 <sup>80</sup>
L. C. Rothrock	250 <sup>00</sup>
G. A. Barnhart	753 <sup>00</sup>
Wm Blabey	150 <sup>00</sup>
